Salary Range: $17.50 To 18.00 Hourly

Bread for the World is a Christian advocacy organization urging U.S. decision makers to do all they can to pursue a world without hunger. Our mission is to educate and equip people to advocate for policies and programs that can help end hunger in the U.S. and around the world. The Karen Sue Smith and Rose DiMartino Internship Program enables you to contribute your efforts to this mission while benefiting from opportunities for supervised learning, personal development, and gain work experience.

DEPARTMENT: Policy and Research Institute (PRI)
REPORTS TO: Senior Policy Advisor
SEMESTER: Fall (September 9 - December 20, 2024)
SCHEDULE: Full Time: up to 30 hours per week
APPLY BY: July 15, 2024

PRIMARY PURPOSE: The intern will support PRI's efforts to implement our Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) strategy through:

- Research and policy analysis.
- Attending coalition meetings and WIC events with the eye towards building partnerships and learning what partners are working on.
- Assist with the WIC components of Bread's Jubilee Campaign; and
- Educational programming for internal and external Bread audiences.

SKILLS/KNOWLEDGE REQUIRED:

- Interest in the impact of WIC on families.
- Writings (either term paper, memo or publications) on issues of domestic social safety net programs generally.
- Interests in researching the history of WIC and its impact on food security.
- Openness to present findings to various audiences.
- Social media savvy.
- Willingness to learn.
- Commitment to the mission of Bread for the World.

WORK ENVIRONMENT ISSUES:

- This internship can be based in Washington, DC or remote.
- Bread is a hybrid organization.

CULTURAL EXPRESSIONS:

Bread is committed to advancing racial equity externally and internally, all staff members play a vital role. In the course of our work, each staff person should work to apply a racial equity lens to their work and practices; and participate in racial equity on-going training. Bread is also committed to being an equal opportunity employer.

OUR VALUES:

1. We value our faith. Our faith in Christ compels us to love our neighbors near and far and is the foundation for our hope, story, mission, and values.
2. We value human flourishing. We believe that every human being, created in the image of God, has inherent dignity that affords an opportunity to thrive in relationship with God, self, neighbor, and the environment; and to access enough nutritious food for good health.
3. We value justice. We seek to establish effective systems, structures, and policies that affirm equality and advance equity among all human beings to alleviate hunger and poverty.
4. We value courage and prophetic voice. In a spirit of wisdom and love, we will be bold in articulating and pursuing our vision of a world without hunger.
5. We value nonpartisanship. We believe that effective and sustainable public policies are made when, in good faith, we employ a civil and bipartisan approach to develop and implement laws and programs to achieve our mission.
6. We value collaboration. We believe in working alongside and building community with a diversity of churches, interfaith communities, institutions, and individuals, including people experiencing hunger, to achieve our mission.
7. We value impact. We strive for excellence in our work and hold ourselves and our nation's leaders accountable in the pursuit of public policies that render measurable results and meaningful change for people everywhere affected by hunger.
